For nature's greatest forces are found in quiet things Like softly falling snowflakes drifting down on angels' wings,
 Or petals dropping soundlessly from a lovely full-blown rose,
 So God comes closest to us when our souls are in repose
 For when everything is quiet and we're lost in meditation,
 Our soul is then preparing for a deeper dedication
 That will make it wholly possible to quietly endure
 The violent world around us - for in God we are secure,
 And girded with this knowledge
 we are safe from all alarms
 For "underneath" life's chaos "are the everlasting arms."

MAUDE BELLE CAMPBELL was born August 12, 1902 in Sylvania, Georgia. She was the fourteenth of sixteen children born to Thomas and Annie Woodberry.

She met and married Grady P. Campbell, January 21, 1921, from this union were born three sons, Ernest C., James R., and Francis D..

They came to Philadelphia with the family in 1929. The family was united with the Mount Zion Methodist Church at 11th and Jefferson Streets, under the pastorate of the Rev. Coleman. She served as an usher until she transferred her membership to the Peniel Methodist Church located at 20th and Jefferson Streets in 1934. At Peniel she served as a Communion Steward. She remained a faithful member for a number of years. In 1959 she transferred her membership to the Community Methodist Church at 59th and Cedar Avenue where she served as a Communion Steward and choir member. In 1965 she came to Sayers Memorial United Methodist Church where she served faithfully as Communion Steward until her illness in 1976.

She was a devoted and faithful wife and mother. She was an active and valued member of the community.

MAUDE BELLE CAMPBELL departed this life June 12th, 1980. She leaves to mourn her passing three sons, two daughters-in-law, two sisters, Mrs. Nolie Dekle of Portal, Georgia, Mrs. Cora Mills of Cincinnati, Ohio, seventeen grandchildren, 37 great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

MAUDE, you will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved you. You fought a long hard fight, kept the faith, and triumphantly won the battle.

THE PEACE OF MEDITATION

So we may know God better and feel His quiet power

Let us begin each day with a "MEDITATION HOUR"

For to understand God's Greatness and to use His gifts each day

The soul must learn to meet Him in a meditative way,

For our Father tells His children that if they would know His will

They must seek Him in the silence when all is calm and still . . .
